Quotation Marks

Dear Parents,

Your child is making progress learning the skills to be a good speller. We appreciate your help, because learning to spell is a task that takes time and practice. Please spend a few minutes helping your child with this practice activity. Read the directions together. Then guide your child through the activity, letting your child do as much as possible without your help. Next, check the answers together.

Write the missing words.

	ing	ed
start slip skate

	er	est
soon slick slow

Now, for fun, ask your child to write tongue twister sentences using these and other words that begin with the same sound. Then have fun trying to say the twisters!

Every child a speller!

Proofread for Spelling

Schools Around the World
Spelling: Words with ee, ea

Proofread the letter. Circle the twelve misspelled words.
Then write the correct spellings on the lines below.

Dear Grandma,

We had a fun trip. Dad had to fix a weel on our car. Then we went to pet a shepe. The animals made Mom sneaz. We saw a girl weve a colorful rug. She tried to teech us the meening of each color.

At last we got to the beech. The shells were fre. I learned that some fish don't have any teeth. We saw a volleyball teem. I got to spek to the players.

Well, that is all. Pleze write soon.

Love,
Tori
